No attempt has been made by counsel for the Assimption of "Obstacles in the semblymen to unswer or explain the State's chargen against Dewitt and Orr, except by a general delence of the Socialist principles.

The chief feature of the defence of William Fruser Methods Bishop of Washington, will speak of "Obstacles in the Way of Church Unity."

the five Socialists was their protestation that they are good clizent, stand ready to defend the Government of the United States if it is in danger of invasion, and their insistence that there is nothing in conflict between their own constitution and those of the State and constitution and those of the State and nation. Answering charges of disloyalty, they contended that the question of loyalty is a matter of interpretation and insisted they were toyal during the of speech, "purely rhetoric," and ex-aggregations due to stress of political compaigns. Mr. Claessens coined a nex phrase at the very end of the trial to-day when he said his Brownsville speech. forming the basis for one of the most serious charges against him, was mere-and the witness said he did. "Then you don't think I can under-stand simple English?" "No." the witness said.

The sum total of a long examination concerning Classens's attitude toward the war was his declaration that he never yet had known of a war he could loyally support, but that it might be pos-sible there would be a situation in which the Socialists might find it expedient to have an army for defense. To the amazement of the Judiclary Committee Classens said the first time he had heard of the constitutional provision requiring appropriations to support a State militia of 10,000 men was when it was read to him to-day by Mr. Brown. He sald if such a provision had been inter-preted to him by a lawyer he would have voted for appropriations for the militia.

In explaining inconsistencies between his utterances and the Socialist constitutions the witness said many times tha the doctrines of his party were not dog-matic, but were very flexible and under proper interpretation could fit almost any situation.

The State put in evidence a letter written in 1916 by the Socialist national exe-cutive accretary declaring that their party candidates for public office are supposed to sign resignation blanks so they may be recalled as "we maintain that in having such control over our can-didates they will adhere more exactly to the programme of the party and render more efficient service.

If you are looking for a safe and permament investment we believe this 7 per cent stock will appeal to you. It is an old established business. That the Preferred Stock is amply well protected is shown from the fact that the net earnings available for dividends after the Federal tax and all other taxes were paid during the past four years have averaged nearly four times the dividends on the Preferred Stock outstanding. The Common Stockholders propose to give even greater protection to the Preferred Stock by leaving annually in the treasury a substantial part of the earnings of the Common Stock.

W.L. Douglas name is known throughout the world. The trade mark is a very valuable asset worth millions of dollars, and is the property of the stockholders. It is one of the most valuable trade marks in United States. Application will be made to have this stock listed upon the stock exchange.

This company owns and operates 107 W.L.Douglas shoe stores located in the large cities. W.L.Douglas shoes are also sold by over 9000 shoe dealers in the United States. During the past few years our shoes have been more extensively advertised than over before. Stamping W.L.Douglas name and the retail price on the bottom of the shoes before they leave the factory has saved the wearers millions of dollars, and guarantees them she best shoes in style, comfort and service that can

In the leading foreign countries a great demand for W. L. Donglas shoes has sprung up. Our domestic business has increased so that our sales have more than doubled in four years. In 1015 the sales were $8,049,628.41 and in 1010 $21,905,004.44 The past six month's business was at the rate of over $24,000,000 per year.

In common with other great businesses we need additional capital to meet the urgent requirements of increasing domestic and foreign trade. The new conditions of business also demand more capital. The cost of labor and material has nearly doubled so that twice the amount of capital necessary under the old business conditions is now required.
